

God Needs a Hero

Sponsored by Jack & Jerry Schwartz

Comic book heroes and special effects are what the world asks us to love and respect,
and to model our lives
on the rich and the famous.
Power, glory; same old story.
True heroes live for God's glory.
God needs a hero!

God needs a hero
and every person needs a cause.
No one lives just to die
or wants to die "just because."
There's only one life to live and only one life to give away
for the people who live in the dark of this world
and who are longing for the light of day.

True Christian heroes, they bear the name "saint."
They live to serve others and without complaint;
spend their lives for God's glory
in building His Kingdom.
Human weakness, Christ-like meekness,
act in faith and always speak less.
God needs a hero!

Now is the time for courage
Understanding and right judgment
Wisdom, knowledge, and wonder and awe, reverence for the Creator of all.
Now is the time,
'cause God needs a hero!
