Sponsored by the Toth Family

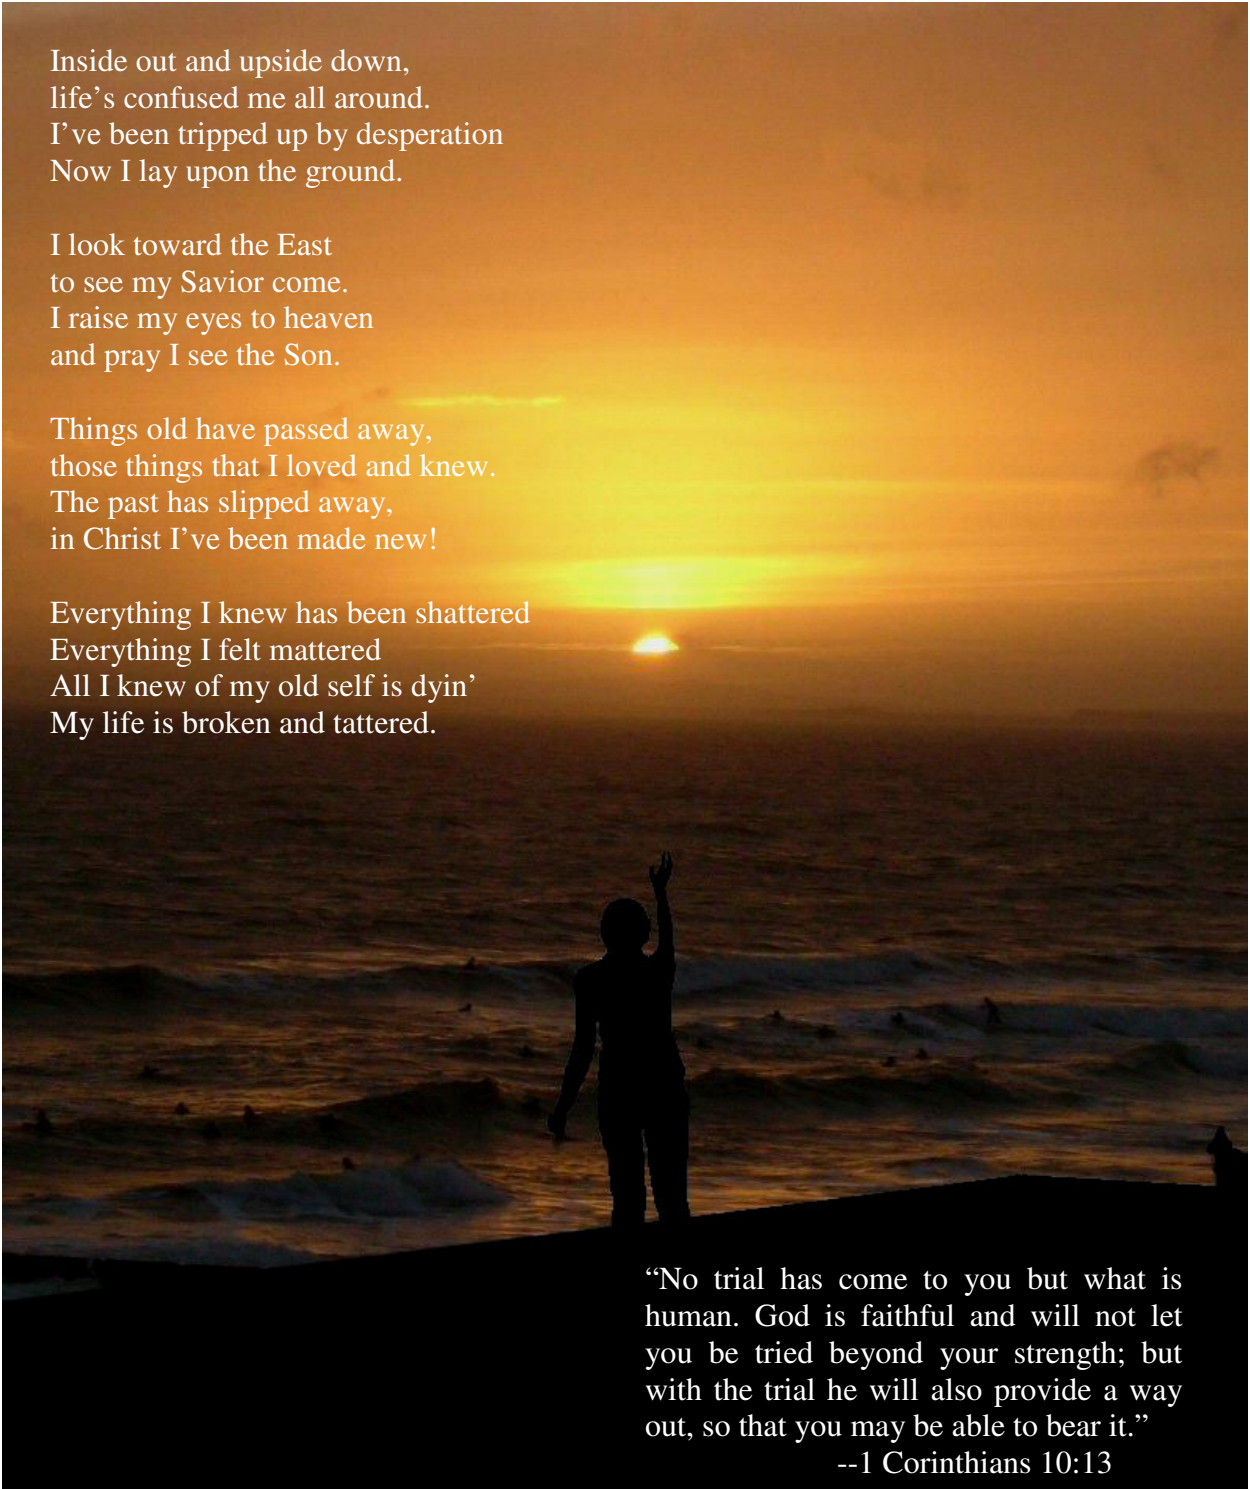

Featuring Boyce Wofford (harmonica), Nick Crawford, Ashlyn Metheny, & Adam Snow

Inside out and upside down, life's confused me all around.
I've been tripped up by desperation
Now I lay upon the ground.

I look toward the East
to see my Savior come.
I raise my eyes to heaven
and pray I see the Son.

Things old have passed away,
those things that I loved and knew.
The past has slipped away,
in Christ I've been made new!

Everything I knew has been shattered
Everything I felt mattered
All I knew of my old self is dyin'
My life is broken and tattered.

“No trial has come to you but what is human. God is faithful and will not let you be tried beyond your strength; but with the trial he will also provide a way out, so that you may be able to bear it.”

--1 Corinthians 10:13
