

Dark Night Sonata

Featuring Jennifer Erwin

VERSE 1:

Day has turned into a night as dark as death's black shroud.
I strain to see thru this cloud.
I pray for moonlight
In the midst of this darkest night.
Where's the reflection of Your Son's, Your Son's perfect light?

VERSE 2:

My heart is beating against the shadows of despair trying to trust that You are there.
Your word is soundless;
all I hear is my restlessness
I walk in pure faith, faith in You in this nothingness!

ENDING:

Moonlight, all I need is a ray of your light!
